

Worry Jar

Everyone has worries. Sometimes it can help to get them out of our heads and down on paper. This can help us see which worries we can cope with on our own and when we might need to ask for some help and support.

Write or draw your worries in this jar:

